

Guidelines for matters relating to pensions

01. How do you contribute to Widows 'and Orphans' Pensions scheme?

Completed Form 86 with the following reports should be submitted to the Department of Pensions.

- Original birth certificate
- Original birth certificate of spouse (if married)
- Original Birth Certificate of Children and the Original Certificate of Marriage

02. How to qualify for pension?

120 months of continuous service in a post entitled to a pension.

03. How to get the widows 'and orphans' pension?

Widow of pensioner / widower, unemployed unmarried female children who are under 26 years old, unemployed male children who are less than 26 years of age.

04. How are eligible for death gratuity?

After the death of officer who has a permanent pension for 60 months uninterrupted service, his dependent is eligible to receive the death gratuity.

05. What is commuted gratuitous?

A commuted gratuity is equivalent to 24 times the unreduced monthly pension.

06. What is unreduced pension?

The retirement pension will be deducted from the same premium by the pensioner for a period of 10 years. The pension will be paid to the pensioner after 10 years.

07. What is the letter pension grant?

A letter on the date of retirement from an officer. This is issued to all pensioners